

PSAC Local 555 Graduate Student Bursary Policy

The Graduate Student Bursary exists to provide assistance to PSAC Local 555 graduate student members who have gone beyond the length of their program and are in financial need. Graduate students who have exceeded their expected program length and are in Pool C of the TA hiring priority are eligible. This policy defines eligibility for the Graduate Student Bursary, guidelines for applications, and how PSAC Local 555 is authorized to respond to and assist applicants.

Eligibility

- The Graduate Student Bursary is open to all PSAC Local 555 Teaching and Research Assistant members who have exceeded the time specified in their support package, i.e. considered as Third Preference (Pool C) in TA hiring priority.
- All applications must be submitted with appropriate supporting documentation.

Fund Information

PSAC Local 555 has allocated $2 000 for two awards of $1 000 for the Graduate Student Bursary.

Please consider and apply for any other sources of funding, such as internal and external scholarships and OSAP. For example, consider:

- The Student Awards and Financial Aid (SAFA) office offers many bursaries and donor awards that are needs based.
- The OSAP Student Access Guarantee assists students in financial need.
- Personal and medical emergencies can be funded via the PSAC Local 555 Hardship Fund.

Funding for the Graduate Student Bursary is limited and, unfortunately, only three bursaries can be granted per year.

The deadline for application submission is March 15, 2021.

The PSAC Local 555 Adjudication Committee will evaluate applications and notify applicants of the decision within 30 days of the application deadline.
