- 11.02
 - a) The Employer acknowledges the right and duties of the representatives of the Union to assist Employees in preparing and presenting a grievance.
 - b) At any stage of the grievance procedure, the Dean may be accompanied by another representative of the Employer.
- 11.03 There shall be no reprisal or retaliation nor any threat of reprisal or retaliation against anyone for pursuing rights under this Article or for participating in proceedings under this Article. Any such alleged reprisal or retaliation or threat thereof shall be equivalent grounds for laying a complaint under the Article.

11.04 INFORMAL DISCUSSION:

Before a grievance is filed formally, and whenever it is possible, the appointing Dean and/or Academic Affairs and/or Human Resources will be given the opportunity to resolve the matter in accordance with the following:

- a) The Employee shall discuss the matter, accompanied by a representative of the Union if he/she wishes, with his/her Dean and/or Academic Affairs and/or Human Resources. The matter shall be brought to the attention of the Dean within fifteen (15) Days after its occurrence, or from the date the Employee ought reasonably to have been aware of the occurrence of the circumstance giving rise to the matter.
- b) The discussion shall take place within five (5) Days after the matter is brought to the attention of the Dean and/or Academic Affairs and/or Human Resources. If requested, the Dean shall give a reply in writing within five (5) Days of the discussion.

11.05 STEP ONE

- a) If a matter is not resolved by the Informal Discussion with the Dean as provided for in 11.04 above, a formal grievance may be submitted to the Dean (or designate) with a copy sent to Academic Affairs for the Faculty in which the Employee works within ten (10) Days of the discussion provided for in 11.04 above. The grievance must be stated in writing by the Union, outlining the facts of the grievance, the Article(s) of the Agreement alleged to have been violated, and the relief sought. The form must be signed and dated by the grievor and a representative of the Union.

If the grievance remains unresolved following the STEP ONE process, the grievance may be submitted to the Provost, or designate, within ten (10) Days of the STEP ONE reply. The Provost shall convene a meeting with the Employee, the Union representative(s) and Academic Affairs to discuss the grievance within ten (10) Days of the receipt of the grievance and shall respond to the grievance, in writing, within seven (7) Days of this meeting.

- 11.07 If the grievance remains unresolved following STEP TWO, the grievance may be submitted to Arbitration as set forth in Article 11.14. If no written request for Arbitration is received within twenty-five (25) Days of the receipt of the decision under STEP TWO, the grievance shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.
- 11.08 Where no answer is given within the time limits specified in the Grievance Procedure, the Union shall be entitled to submit the grievance to the next step of the Grievance Procedure. Any grievance that is not commenced or processed to the next step in the Grievance Procedure within the aforesaid time limits, or as mutually extended, shall be deemed to have been terminated.

Failing resolution of the matter following the Informal Discussion, as provided for in Article 11.04, a group grievance shall be submitted at the STEP ONE stage. All Employees affected may sign the grievance but only one (1) affected Employee may be present at the Informal Discussion and at each step of the grievance process. Up to three (3) additional Employees from the group may be called as witnesses. Any agreement under this Grievance Procedure shall be applied to all affected Employees who signed the grievance.
- 11.10 A policy grievance arising directly between the Employer and the Union shall be initiated at STEP TWO of the grievance procedure and submitted directly to the Union or Academic Affairs as applicable. However, it is expressly understood that the provisions of this paragraph may not be used by the Union to institute a grievance directly affecting an Employee or Employees which such Employee or Employees could themselves institute and the regular Grievance Procedure shall not be thereby by-passed. Any grievance by the Employer or the Union as provided in this paragraph shall be commenced within fifteen (15) Days after its occurrence or from the date the Employer or the Union ought reasonably to have been aware of the occurrence of the circumstances giving rise to the grievance.
- 11.11 An Employer grievance will be submitted to the Toronto Regional Office of the PSAC and shall be originated at STEP TWO. A decision by the Union will be delivered in writing within ten (10) Days of the hearing provided for in STEP TWO.
- 11.12 The Employee and a representative who accompanies this Employee under this Article will not suffer a loss in pay as a result of attendance at meetings between the Employer and the Employee as provided for under this Article. Both the Employee and the representative will provide as much advance notice as possible to their Supervisor of any such meetings that conflict with their Employee responsibilities.
- 11.13 If the Union notifies the Employer in writing of an alleged violation of the Collective Agreement but indicates a decision not to grieve, this decision shall be without prejudice to grievances on similar matters. Furthermore, the withdrawal of a grievance at any step shall be without prejudice to grievances on similar matters if the Employer receives written notification of this decision from the Union.

Arbitration Procedure

- 11.14 If the Employer or the Union requests that a grievance be submitted to Arbitration, it shall make such request in writing addressed to the other party within twenty-five (25) Days of the written decision of STEP TWO pursuant to Article 11.07.
- 11.15 Grievances shall be heard by a single Arbitrator.
- 11.16 Appointment of an Arbitrator
The grieving party will propose three (3) arbitrators to the responding party. If the responding party cannot agree to the appointment of any of these three (3) candidates, it will propose three (3) arbitrators to the grieving party. If none of these three (3) candidates are acceptable to the grieving party, the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario will be requested to appoint the arbitrator.
- 11.17 Authority
An Arbitrator has the power and authority as provided for in the Ontario Labour Relations Act. The Arbitrator shall have no authority to add to, subtract from, modify, change, or alter in any way the provisions of this Agreement or any expressly written amendment or supplement thereto or to extend its duration, unless the parties have expressly agreed, in writing, to the arbitrator's specific authority to do so, or to make a decision which has such effect.
- 11.18 No matter may be submitted to Arbitration which has not been properly carried through the Grievance procedure, except that the parties by mutual written consent, may extend the time limits fixed in both the Grievance and Arbitration Procedures.
- 11.19 The written decision of the Arbitrator will be final and binding upon the parties hereto, and the Employees.
- 11.20 Each of the parties hereto will bear one half of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator.
- 11.21 No adjustment effected under the Grievance or Arbitration procedures shall be made retroactive beyond the date of the occurrence of the matter or from the date the Employee, or the Union, or the Employer in respect of Article 11.10, ought reasonably to have been aware of the occurrence of the circumstances giving rise to the matter.

11.22 Where appropriate the parties may, by mutual consent, agree to expedite the arbitration process. Expedited arbitration shall proceed by agreed statement of facts and shall require the arbitrator to deliver a decision orally at the conclusion of the hearing.

General

The University shall decide the qualifications required for each position where the University is considering appointing a Sessional Lecturer. - a) Prior to posting under 12.02 the University shall post a position restricted to Internal Applicants. Normally positions will be posted no less than 20 Days prior to the start of the Course. The internal posting shall be posted on the University's employment website for a minimum of five (5) Days.

12.03 Emergency Appointments

- a) In the event that a candidate is offered a position that was posted and does not sign back the Appointment Letter, or accepts the appointment and abandons the appointment twenty (20) Days prior to the start of the Course the University shall fill the resulting vacancy with a qualified Internal Applicant. If no qualified Internal Applicant is available, the University may fill the resulting vacancy through whatever means it may choose.

Every Sessional Lecturer, regardless of the process for appointment, shall receive an offer of appointment in the form of an Appointment Letter. The candidate will have ten (10) Days to sign back acceptance of the offer on the Appointment Letter. The offer of employment as a Sessional Lecturer will be considered to have been withdrawn if not signed back within this period. If such appointments are to more than one (1) Course the candidate shall receive separate Appointment Letters for each discrete Course.

12.05 Multiple Appointments

- a) The University, may appoint a Sessional Lecturer to more than one (1) appointment concurrently, either to separate Courses or to more than one (1) section of a single Course up to a maximum of three (3) Courses/sections per term not exceeding seven (7) Courses/sections per Academic Year.

- 15.01 Sessional Lecturers are “Academic Personnel” under the University’s Intellectual Property policy. As such, subject to the modifications below, intellectual property will be administered according to the University’s Intellectual Property policy. This policy is posted on the University’s website.
- 15.02 Notwithstanding the provisions in 6.3(a) of the Intellectual Property policy, the University retains the right to negotiate with an intellectual property creator, dependent on factors pertinent to the particular fact situation, a percentage share of commercialization that is of lesser value for the University.
- 15.03 If the Employer exercises its right (per section 3.1 of the policy) to “copy, use or modify” a Sessional Lecturer’s material, it is the Employer’s responsibility to obtain permissions, for any distributions or publications of that material, from any non-faculty authors with copyright in that material. It is the Sessional Lecturer’s responsibility to identify such authorship.

Academic Freedom

- 15.04 UOIT regards academic freedom as indispensable to the pursuit of knowledge. The freedom of Sessional Lecturers to define research questions, to engage in research, to pursue the answers with rigor, and to disseminate knowledge according to their best judgment resides at the core of the University’s mission. Accordingly, academic freedom is the right of every Sessional Lecturer. The Employer expects its Sessional Lecturers to exercise this freedom with integrity and with due regard for the rights and freedoms of others.

Existing Conditions and Benefits

- 15.05 All rights, privileges, working conditions and benefits which Employees now enjoy, receive or possess as Employees of the University of Ontario Institute of Technology shall continue to be enjoyed and possessed insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Agreement, but may be modified by mutual agreement between the University and the Union.

Article 16 – Personnel File

- 16.01 Upon request, Employees shall have the right, normally within two (2) Days, to consult their personnel file in the presence of a representative of the Employer, and, if they so wish, a representative of the Union. A copy of any disciplinary letter shall be provided to the Union within three (3) Days of such a meeting.

- 17.05 In cases involving alleged serious insubordination or the perception of a continuing threat to the safety of a person or property, the Dean of the Faculty in which the Employee works may suspend an Employee with pay during the period that the Employer investigates the alleged action or behaviour prior to holding a meeting under Article 17.03. This step is precautionary and not itself considered to be disciplinary. The Employee will receive a letter advising of the matter being investigated, any restrictions placed on his/her access to individuals or to the University campus, and advising of the right to consult with a representative of the Union. The Union shall also be provided with a copy of this letter. In these circumstances, the Employer will proceed as expeditiously as possible with a view to minimizing the period of time of the suspension. The precautionary suspension shall continue only until the Dean has returned his/her decision following the meeting held under Article 17.03.
- 17.06 Employees shall be given an opportunity to acknowledge that he/she has received a disciplinary letter by signing the copy to be filed. The Employee may attach comments to the letter.

- 17.07 It is agreed that a disciplinary warning letter within an Employee's employment file shall be deemed null and void and removed from the file after the completion of twenty four (24) months of employment, excluding the Term in which the disciplinary letter was issued, from the date of the letter and provided that no further discipline has been recorded within the period noted above.
